

Ready for a real challenge
in the world of PR?

Join our campaign for Saudi Arabia.

YOU

Are you a high flying PR talent with fierce ambition? Are you unafraid to venture into unknown territories? Ready to energize tomorrows leaders, markets and minds? Radically change perceptions?

US

We are Matthews Sanders Lovell & Associates, the world's leading PR firm. A global powerhouse operating from Washington DC and soon to be opening offices in Paris, Berlin, Moscow, Tokyo and Mumbai. And we are looking for PR talent who can distract the world's attention from the merciless persecution of human rights activists, the torture in prisons, the corporal punishment and the killing of civilians in Yemen by Saudi Arabia, our biggest client.

OUR CULTURE

Where others see problems, we see opportunities. Where others are guided by conscience, we are guided by cash. Do you fit our unique culture of looking away from everything except profit? Then you are the talent we are looking for.
