

ISRAEL'S SYSTEM OF APARTHEID AGAINST THE PALESTINIANS, A CRUEL SYSTEM OF DOMINATION AND A CRIME AGAINST HUMANITY:

WHAT NEXT?

An evening of awareness-raising through Palestinian short films & discussion
with:

Diana Buttu, Miko Peled, Lina Hadid, Philip Luther
and Anne-Catherine
Menétrey-Savary

15 June 2022
7:30 pm

Cinémas du Grütli
Geneva

AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL

PALESTINE
FILMER C'EST EXISTER
RENCONTRES CINÉMATOGRAPHIQUES

OUR PANELISTS

Diana Buttu

Palestinian-Canadian human rights lawyer, analyst and writer based in Haifa. Previously served as lawyer to the Palestinian Liberation Organization and advisor to President Mahmoud Abbas and Palestinian negotiators. Diana is also a writer and works with the Institute for Middle East Understanding (IMEU).

Miko Peled

Writer and human rights activist born and raised in Jerusalem. Prominent supporter of the Palestinian call for Boycott, Divestment and Sanctions (BDS) and the creation of a single democracy with equal rights on all of historic Palestine.

Lina Hadid

Lawyer, lobbyist and activist for the Palestinian Liberation Movement based between Geneva and Paris. One of the founders of the Palestine Lobby, she uses her social media presence to raise awareness for Palestinian human rights

Anne-Catherine
Menétrey-Savary

Member of the Swiss Parliament (for Vaud) from 1999 to 2007, author of ten motions concerning the Israeli occupation of the Palestinian territories and the role of Switzerland. She joined a delegation of Swiss parliamentarians in the West Bank in 2002, and again in 2007 to meet Israeli Palestinians. She was a member of the Parliamentary legal affairs committee which modified the law to allow the indictment of perpetrators of war crimes.

Philip Luther

Philip has worked for Amnesty International for over twenty years. He is currently Senior Research & Policy Adviser, managing the production of the organisation's Annual Report. Formerly: Research & Advocacy Director for the Middle East and North Africa (2015-2020), Director of the Middle East and North Africa Programme (2011-2015). He graduated from Oxford University in Arabic and modern Hebrew.